MISSION To enrich, educate, and empower Parents, Policy Makers, and the Public on issues impacting the future of America.

Your investment ensures Moms for Liberty Foundation remains a vigilant leader in the defense of parental rights and can continue educating parents, the public, and policy-makers on issues impacting America's future.

Over the last four years, M4LF has created and deployed countless resources to connect and mobilize concerned citizens ready to remedy the failures of public education and expose the alarming overreach of government into families' lives and decisions. As the nation's largest grassroots parental rights organization, our work as the watchdogs from the school house to the White House is activating more everyday Americans to civic engagement. And we're just getting started!

By supporting M4LF, you ensure that protecting parental rights and the innocence of American children remain at the forefront of policy and election conversations for years to come. Without your support, teachers' union priorities and meddling government agendas will erode parents' fundamental, God-given rights to direct the upbringing of their children. Thank you for considering joining the M4LF John & Abigail Adams Giving Society!

Outlined on the following pages are the M4LF John & Abigail Adams Giving Society Levels, recognitions, and premiums associated with each. Regardless of your giving level, we're extremely grateful for your generosity, which fuels our vital work and shared values. Thank you!
